SUBJECT: YOUR FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT CASE NAVSEA-HQ
2014F000046

Dear Mr. MacFarlane:

This follows up our February 7, 2014 letter to you in which we acknowledged receipt of your December 6, 2013 Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request for copies of all photographs of the interior of Building 197 at NAVSEA Headquarters in DC from calendar years 2011, 2012, or 2013 that are not part of the investigation into a shooting inside said building on September 16, 2013.

In your request, you also asked for fees to be waived. However, there are no assessable fees for your request. As such, we do not need to decide on your fee waiver request.

Because Building 197 is a secured building, photographs of the interior of the building were not permitted. As such, there are no documents responsive to your request.

If you believe that we did not conduct an adequate search, you may file an administrative appeal. Your appeal should contain an explanation as to why you believe our search was inadequate and must be received within 60 calendar days from the date of this letter. If you file an appeal, please attach a copy of your initial request, a copy of this letter, and mark the appeal letter and envelope "Freedom of Information Act Appeal." Mail a copy of your appeal to the Department of the Navy, Office of the General Counsel, 1000 Navy Pentagon, Room 4E635, Washington, DC 20350-1000.

If you have any questions regarding the status of this request, please contact Ms. Donna Hamlin by telephone at 202-781-2437 or send an email to navseafoia@navy.mil.

Sincerely,

DONNA M. HAMLIN
Head, Freedom of Information
Act Program
